A return ticket is required by all volunteers and medical insurance for their period in Israel. The volunteer also needs to obtain travel insurance and be able to afford spending money. Volunteers are accepted on the understanding that the length of service is based on the ability to do the work assigned and to relate well to the team. Sometimes it is necessary for volunteers to return earlier than anticipated. This would be in consultation with the Director. Further information will be forwarded to those whose applications are successful. Please send the following to: Volunteers.CMJ@gmail.com
