

CMJ ISRAEL
A PART OF THE WORLDWIDE CMJ FAMILY

100 Years Ago – The British in the Holy Land

A CMJ Lecture Series to commemorate the historic events of 1917

*All lectures will be at Christ Church, Jerusalem (just inside the Jaffa Gate), and will start at 7.30 pm.
All are welcome. Entrance is free.*

PART 2: September – October 2017

Thursday 7th September 2017

Rev Aaron Eime (Historian & Researcher, CMJ Israel)

Bible Comes to Life. The influence of visual display and exhibits on the Faith and Practice of Protestant Christianity.

7.00 p.m. – Cheese and Wine

7.30 p.m. – Lecture

Monday 16th October 2017

Dr Shaul Sapir (Senior Lecturer in Historical Geography, Hebrew University)

The British Missionary Societies in the Holy Land in the 19th and early 20th Centuries: Challenges, Activities and Impact.

7.00 p.m. – Cheese and Wine

7.30 p.m. – Lecture

Wednesday 18th October 2017

Eran Tirosh, (Israeli Society for the Heritage of World War I)

Battles, Balfour and ANZACs in Be'er Sheva.

7.00 p.m. – Cheese and Wine

7.30 p.m. – Lecture

Thursday 19th October 2017

Jonathan Kaplan (Vice Provost, Rothberg School, Hebrew University)

From the Balfour Declaration to the British Mandate.

7.00 p.m. – Cheese and Wine

7.30 p.m. – Lecture

Thursday 26th October 2017

David Schmidt (Lecturer at Jerusalem University College and the University of the Holy Land)

Lloyd George's 1917 Cabinet – Why did Britain issue the Balfour Declaration?

7.00 p.m. – Cheese and Wine

7.30 p.m. – Lecture

CMJ was founded in London in 1809, and Christ Church in Jerusalem was dedicated in 1849.

For information, go to www.cmj-israel.org.

---